BACK-STAGE by bill doll

When Sue Bosley leaves Ivoryton she'll go right to Hollywood to be featured in a Warner Brothers film and will remain to act in Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1939. Sue is the current Miss Louisville and that is her picture in Click Magazine, this issue, will all the lovely models . . . New to you is Eve March, who is fresh from the films and the Helen Hayes radio program . . . June Lorraine is a Middletown girl . . . Madeline Grey is the wife of Frank Grey, the composer, who has three musical comedies and over seven hundred published songs to his credit . . . Madeline Grey and Muriel Campbell are playing the same parts that they played in "Stage Door" in New York and on the road. Judie Parrish was in the road show too . . . Nina Hill came direct to Ivoryton from the road show of "Having Wonderful Time" . . . Edith Terry hails from Fenwick . . . And next week the show that all Connecticut has been waiting for. The sophisticated comedy produced in New York by John Golden, "Susan and God." Violet Heming, making her first personal appearance in these parts, will be the guest star. Treasurer Richard Adams will keep the box office open at intermission so that you can make your reservations early.
